VISITING ARTIST

Julie Fay

Why are they taking our table away?

Wonder what we're having for dessert today?

Many people wait for "someday", a day when all they have ever hoped for will be theirs. Sometimes, the days before that distant day become ordinary and routine. Sometimes even boring. But one should realize, that always, each day until "someday" brings something new, something to make the world more interesting.

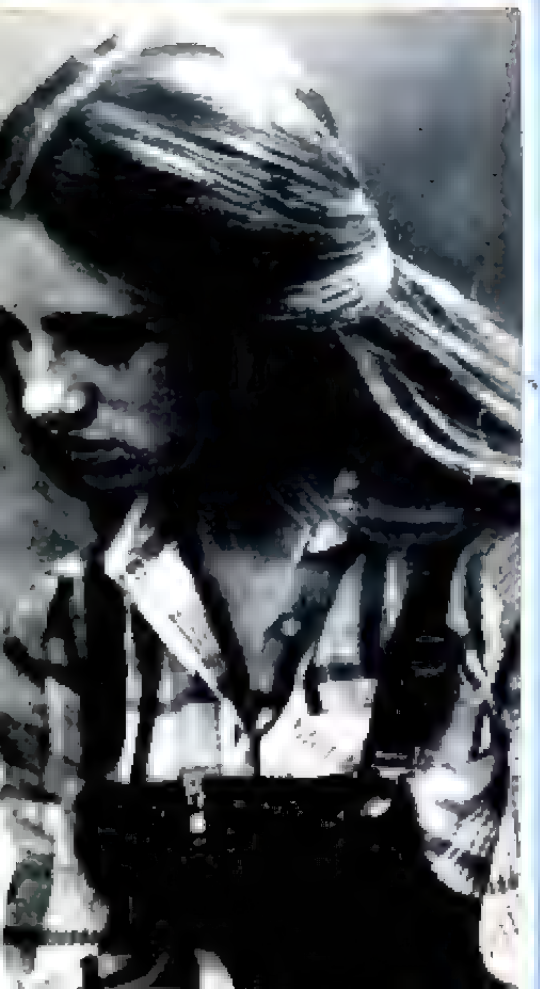
When and Why?

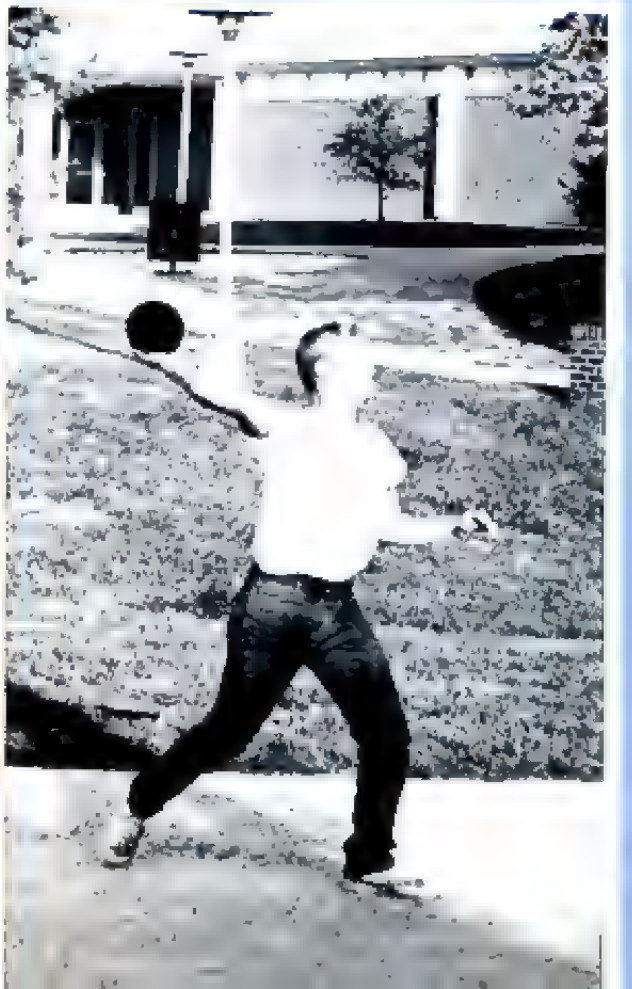
Endeavors

That we may endeavor to foresee and to control what can neither be foreseen nor controlled—the destiny of tomorrow?
Johann Wolfgang Van Goethe, 1749-1832

Reflections

Does the sun shine on us today that we may reflect on yesterday?





If and And . . .

If you can think
About your work
As being help
To someone else

You soon will find
That that alone
Will make your task
A happier one.

And if you add
To each task
done
Some little touch
That goes beyond

What is required,
Your work becomes
A thing of art

SURRY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

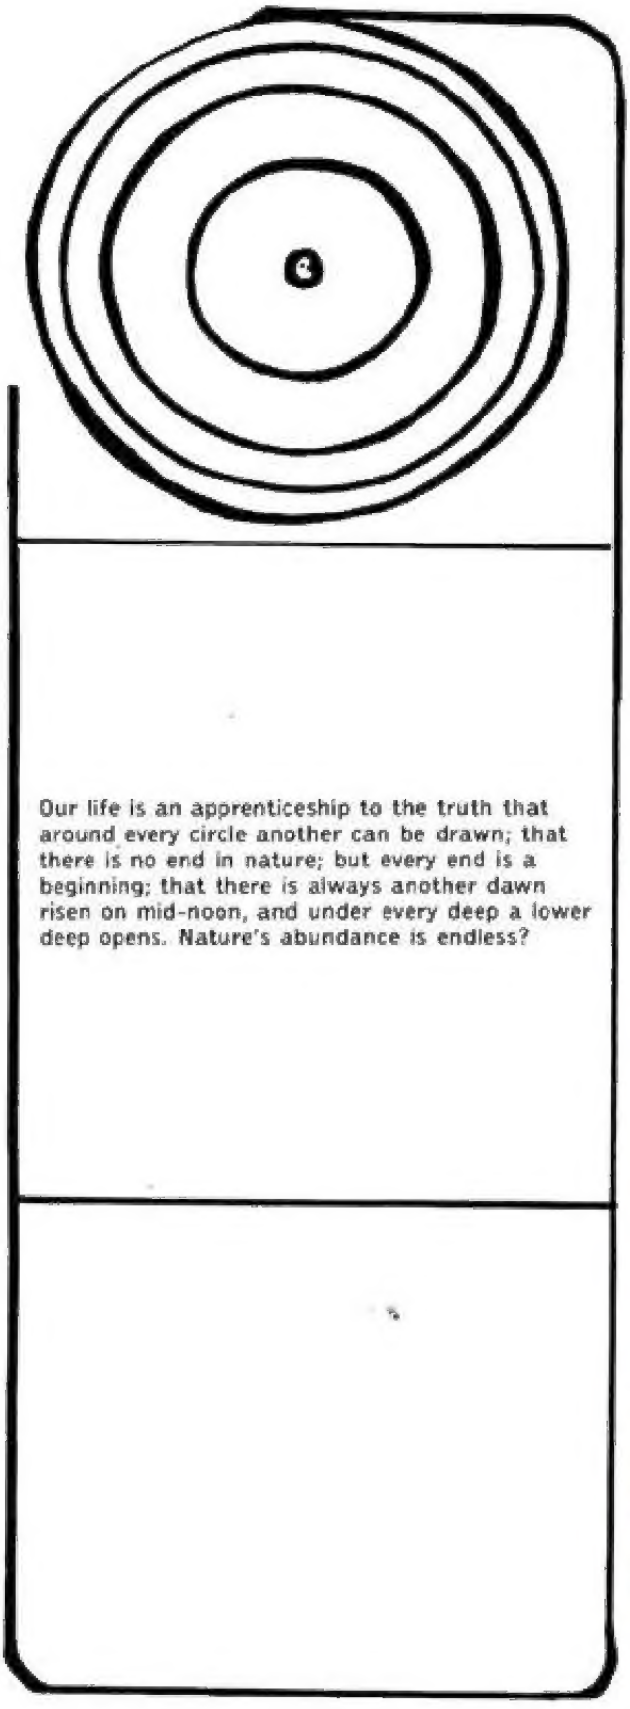
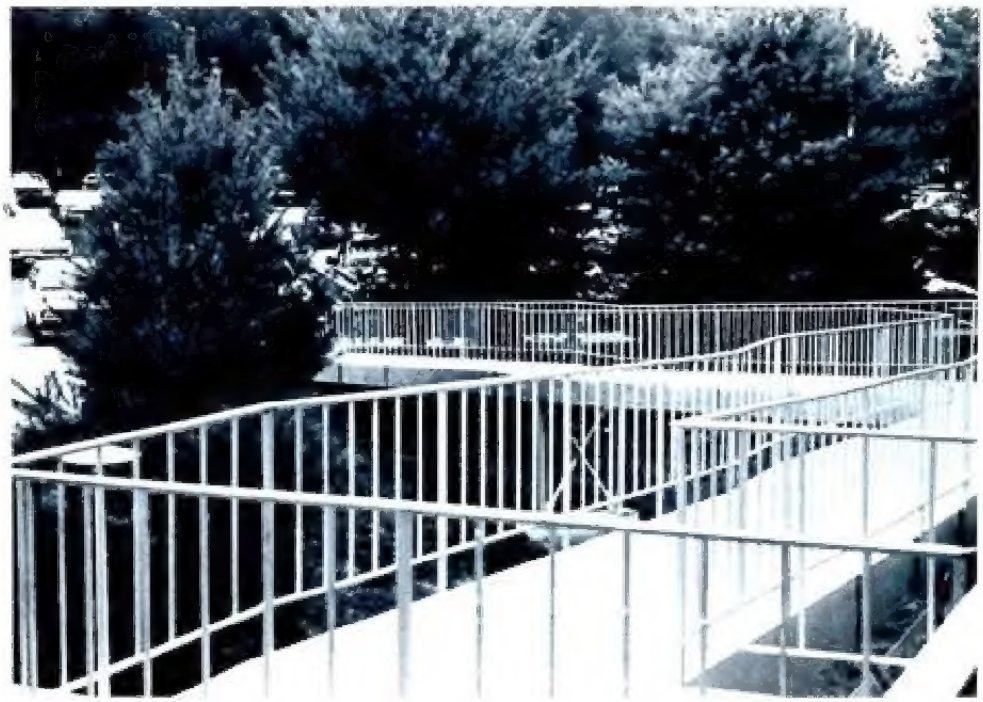
STUDENT



Our life is an apprenticeship to the truth that around every circle another can be drawn; that there is no end in nature; but every end is a beginning; that there is always another dawn risen on mid-noon, and under every deep a lower deep opens. Nature's abundance is endless?



If you look forward to "someday," then look to this day, for it is life; the very life of life. In its brief course lie all the verities and realities of your existence; the bliss of growth, the glory of action, the splendor of beauty. For yesterday is but a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision; but today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope. Look well, therefore, to this day, such is the salutation of the dawn.
